-The Supreme Court kicked up a dust when it decided the Extirn Norton ea e. For three or four days there has been a regular how dye-do. All the facts are well known. Every time the tax was ordered levied there was a general bowl and vigorous opposition. A committee of citizens and lawyers reported in favor of a compremise, a minority reporting against it, but were voted down. Next day Gen Turner protested against the compro mise and succeeded in persuading the Court that the money reed not be paid, for which service he has been paid something in the neighborhood of $1350.

RIVER REPAIRS

Delegate Appointed at the Meeting of the Committee.

At the meeting of the Western Waterways Committee held yesterday morning it was resolved to send a delegate, in conjunction with the Cotton and Merchants' Exchanges, to -Hardly has the echo of the horn Washington to act in concert with one delegate each from New Orleans, St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Paul.

St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Paul.
The object in view was expressed in the resolution offered by Msj. D. W.
Dabney, as follows:
WHEREAS, By an amendment to the river and harbor bill, as reported by the committee, the House of Representatives has virtually des royed the innetions of the Mississippi River functions of the Mis-issippi River Commission; and, whereas, we regard this action as utterly subversive of all river interests, and especially the improvement of navigation on the Mississippi river; and, whereas, the per-ple of Memphis and of the State of Tennessee recognize and appreciate the great good already accomplished by the river commission in improving the Miss'ssippi river, and having ent'ra confidence in the ultimate auccess of its efforts if allowed to consummate

its p'ans: therefors, be it

Resolved, that the delegate selected by this committee to visit Washington in the interests of Memphis and the State of Tennessee be instructed to use all influence at his command to induce the United States Senate to strike out said House amendment and to restore to the Mississippi River Commis-

Resolved further, That the press of Memphis and the Mississippi Valley generally be urged to use its influence to this end. Mr. W. A. Everman was unanimously elected. Mr. Everman will meet the delegates from other cities
